Company Summary

Empowerment Resource Center, Inc. (ERC) strives to directly deliver programs and generate solutions to societal and community issues that increase HIV transmission. The Bylaws, mission and vision of ERC are to increase knowledge about the HIV/AIDS epidemic, empower responsible, healthy-choice decision-making, establish routine HIV testing, use resources to link those who are HIV positive to appropriate care, and help to reduce at-risk behaviors and the stigma associated with HIV.

ERC was established in 2003 as a volunteer service organization to reduce the transmission of HIV and AIDS. We are staffed with highly skilled and trained HIV prevention educators, HIV lab managers, and counselors. ERC personnel are experienced and privileged to serve our clients in myriad community setting, to include high schools, universities, homeless shelters, correctional institutions, and religious settings.

ERC uses proven, scientific and evidence-based interventions to provide HIV prevention education, counseling, testing, and referral services and establish key deliverables and project phases to exceed clients expectations, both in Georgia and nationally.
